

Local Communities Depend On Open Skies Don't Let Legacy Carriers Restrict Competition

---

"Foreign carriers bring thousands of travelers into the country on a daily basis. Many of them service areas that are underserved by American carriers."

—Curtis Phillips, Chicago, IL

"Free competition between U.S. airlines and foreign airlines only creates a win for the consumer and the U.S. economy."

—David Martin, San Clemente, CA

"This is a successful free-market program that benefits travelers everywhere. Fares have dropped under this program and travelers have enjoyed benefits that would be unlikely under a monopoly."

—Denise Tapper, Orlando, FL